

2018 History Talks at the Grange Hall

91 Old County Road, East Sandwich
sponsored by the Nye Family of America Association

MARCH 18th - Sunday - 2:00-3:00

Birthplace of the Nation:

Commemorations of the Pilgrim Landing in 1920 and Today

Anne Mason is the Executive Director of the Plymouth Antiquarian Society, a nonprofit organization dedicated to preserving and sharing local history. She received her Ph.D. in American history from the University of Delaware in 2015. Her research explores how public commemorations of the colonial past shaped American identity in the early twentieth century. There is no admission fee, though donations will be gratefully accepted. Coffee and cookies will be provided. In the case of substantial snow cover, the event will be moved to a future date. To determine whether the event has been cancelled, please call (508) 888-7629, go to the “Events” page of the Nye Family Association’s website: www.nyefamily.org or our Facebook page.
